

OCEANA GROUP LIMITED

RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. CONSTITUTION

The Oceana Board of Directors (“the Board”) assumes responsibility for the governance of risk within Oceana Group Limited (“Oceana”) and within all Oceana subsidiaries (“Group”). The governance of risk encompasses considering opportunities and associated risks when developing the Group strategy as well as the potential positive and negative effects of those risks on achieving the Group objectives. The Board has established a Risk Committee (“the Risk Committee”) to assist it with the governance of risk. The role of the Committee is to assist the Board to set direction for how risk is approached and managed while adopting a stakeholder inclusive approach, as well as to oversee and direct that the Group has implemented an effective policy and plan for risk management and compliance. The committee is appointed to act on behalf of Oceana Group Limited and its subsidiaries, both locally and internationally.

2. RISK PHILOSOPHY AND TOLERANCE

The group’s risk philosophy is to be engaged in catching, processing and marketing fish and fish products, foods, cold storage and related services both locally and internationally only where opportunities and risks have been adequately identified, measured, evaluated and then subsequently managed so that the risk-reward relationship remains within parameters acceptable to the Board. Risk governance is an integral part of the Board’s decision making process and the manner in which it executes its duties.

3. PURPOSE

The primary purposes of the Risk Committee are to:

- a) establish and maintain a common understanding of the risk universe, which needs to be addressed in order to meet strategic objectives,
- b) identify and agree the risk profile of the Group including the ten most important risks affecting the Group, the risk appetite of the Group and the risk tolerance of the Group.
- c) satisfy the corporate governance reporting requirements,
- d) monitor the Group’s risk management and assurance efforts, and
- e) exercise ongoing oversight of risk management within the Group and, in particular, oversee that it results in the following:
 - i. An assessment of the Group’s dependence on resources and relationships;
 - ii. The design and implementation of appropriate risk responses;
 - iii. The establishment and implementation of business continuity arrangements that allow the organisation to operate under conditions of volatility, and to withstand and recover from acute shocks;
 - iv. The integration and embedding of risk management in the business activities and culture of the Group.

and report to the Board on the risk management work undertaken and the extent of action taken by management to address areas identified for improvement.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The responsibilities and duties of the Risk Committee shall include:
